OPPORTUNITY HAS BOTH HANDS OUT TO DEMOCRACY SAYS PAXTON

State Chairman Declares Chances for Sweeping Victory Throughout State Could Hardly be Improved.

REPUBLICAN FRICTION MAKES WINNING EASY Urges Democrats to Make Earnest Struggle for Election of Majority in House of Representatives.

"Opportunity has both hands extended to the Democratic party in New Mexico this year. It is the greatest opportunity I have ever known for a sweeping party victory in the state, and one which will have the effect of placing the party permanently in power in New Mexico. All we have to do is to take advantage of it."

This was the statement of Chairman J. H. Paxton, of the Democratic state committee this morning, in summing up the political outlook in New Mexico. Mr. Paxton is spending the day here completing arrangements with the local committees for the state Democratic convention, to take place in Elks' theater on August 17th.

That Mr. Paxton is encouraged by the situation, is putting it mildly. He is an enthusiast which is contagious and which sees nothing ahead but complete victory.

"If our party had arranged the state situation for the coming campaign it could not have done it more effectively from the Democratic standpoint," said Mr. Paxton. "The Republicans, hopelessly divided by the determined stand of the Progressive movement, are rapidly passing from bad to worse. The factional fight now opening in Peralillo county is not an exceptional situation. There are factional struggles in all of the larger counties heretofore considered in the Republican class. And while we have differences in the Democratic party, they are not bitter and they will in no section of the state develop into open factional warfare."

"With anything like consistent harmonious work there will be no chance for the defeat of the Democratic state candidates. We should, however, put aside all differences and make this victory so sweeping that the opposition will not feel like coming back for years to come."

"The vital stake in this campaign is the assembly. The Democrats carry the majority into the house this fall, but I want to impress on you and every Democrat in the state that this is no easy job. Merely standing around and asserting that we can elect a majority in the house is not going to elect that majority. In the Republican counties it is necessary to make not a county but a precinct campaign; a personal appeal campaign; a direct argument campaign. We have the arguments; our cause is just and right. But it must be presented, face to face to every voter in this state, to be effective. If this kind of a campaign is made we will win the legislature and clinch certain victory for the Democrats in 1916. If we fail to do it we will not elect a majority in the assembly and we will seriously imperil our chances for success in 1918. Therefore I say to the Democrats of this state, if you have a fight with a fellow Democrat, forget it; let the Republicans do the fighting, and get down to serious, consistent, persistent, earnest campaign work. That way lies victory."

Chief McMillin telegraphed the facts to Hanley this morning, and informed him that unless definite advice from him, without "ifs," "ands" or "buts" were not at hand this afternoon Rosenthal would be freed. No word was received from the husband in reply to that message, and Rosenthal's release followed.

ROSENTHAL FREED; WARNING FROM JUSTICE

Nothing Else Court Could Inflict Under the Statute. Husband Insists that Wife Return at Once.

Charles H. Rosenthal, under bond since his arrest early this week on a charge growing out of his trip to this city in company with his divorced wife, Mrs. T. P. Hanley of Detroit, was released by Justice George R. Craig this afternoon. The charge against Rosenthal was unlawful cohabitation. Under the statute the justice could only warn him against continuance of the offense. Rosenthal promised to stay away from Mrs. Hanley and to make no effort to interfere with her return to her husband, T. P. Hanley, a Detroit banker.

Hanley, who telegraphed Chief McMillin yesterday that he would forgive all if his wife would return to him, wired the chief today that Mrs. Hanley's return must be immediate or he would come to this city Monday and press the case against Rosenthal to the limit. The chief had advised Hanley that his wife was willing to return, but that she was ill at St. Joseph's hospital and not able to travel at this time. The tone of Hanley's telegram indicated that he was inclined to suspect his wife's illness might be feigned. As a matter of fact Mrs. Hanley is not well enough to make the trip to Detroit at this time.

Chief McMillin telegraphed the facts to Hanley this morning, and informed him that unless definite advice from him, without "ifs," "ands" or "buts" were not at hand this afternoon Rosenthal would be freed. No word was received from the husband in reply to that message, and Rosenthal's release followed.

TWITCHELL AGAIN HEADS STATE ROAD ASSOCIATION

D. B. Lane of Albuquerque Named Secretary and Beeker of Belen Treasurer. Beaven Opposed to Pay for Road Boards.

[Special Dispatch to Evening Herald] Santa Fe, N. M., Aug. 1.—The State Highway association today elected R. E. Twitchell to succeed himself as president, D. B. Lane of Albuquerque, secretary, and John Becker, Jr., to succeed himself as treasurer. Resolutions thanking Santa Fe and various individuals and organizations which contributed to the success of the road convention were passed.

In an interview given here today Chairman John Heaver of the Bernallillo county road board expresses himself as opposed to the payment of per diem or salary to road board members. He declares he is perfectly willing to serve without pay and thinks that there are plenty of men in every county who are similarly willing to serve.

ROSENWALD ARROW SALE DRAWS BIG CROWD OF BUYERS

The Piercing Arrow sale, put on today by Rosenwald Brothers, proved one of the buying sensations of the year with Albuquerque shoppers.

Widely advertised and based on splendid values in every department in the big store, it drew crowds into every section and kept the big sales force rushing from opening time this morning right through the day. It is a one-day sale which ends with the closing of the store tonight.

SHERIFF IN FIST FIGHT WITH AN ANGRY RANCHER

Peck has Nursed Grudge Against Romero Since His Bill as Special Deputy was Clipped.

Trouble between Walter Peck, a farmer near Barr station, and Sheriff Jesus Romero, over money Peck claims has been due him as a special deputy sheriff, broke out this afternoon in a fist fight on Second street near Central avenue. It was stopped by Officers Pablo Lujan and Charles Main, who placed Peck and Thomas Phelan, a companion, under arrest.

Sheriff Romero had a bump on his forehead where Peck's fist had struck him, and Peck came out of the fray with a cut on his temple where it is supposed the sheriff's right hand.

The fight took place in front of P. F. McCanna's real estate office. Sheriff Romero said that Peck and Phelan stopped him, and that Phelan held him by the lapels of his coat while Peck assaulted him. Peck asserted that he struck the sheriff when the latter called him a liar.

The men almost came together again in the station house, and only quick action on the part of Officers Main and Lujan prevented another clash.

Two years ago a horse was stolen from Peck's place. He was deputized to pursue the thief and after a long chase ran him down near the Texas line. He was given $50 for his services. He claimed $100 more, and sued for it, but lost the suit, the ruling being that the sheriff could pay what he estimated the service to be worth.

CLAIMS LUCERO DID NOT OFFER ANY THING OF VALUE

Attorney for Indicted Legislator Would Quash Bill on Ground of Defective Indictment.

[Special Dispatch to Evening Herald] Santa Fe, N. M., Aug. 1.—E. P. Davies, attorney for Jose P. Lucero, member of the last house of representatives, who is charged in an indictment with having solicited a bribe and who the lower court found guilty and sentenced to 1½ years in the penitentiary, today filed a brief in which he seeks release of his client on the ground that the indictment is defective in that Lucero, a member from Rio Arriba county, did not offer anything of value in exchange for the bribe he is alleged to have solicited.

face of numerous errors and after it had been found that the footings were short a little more than a million dollars of the total set down by the assessor. This trifling defect and others discovered in the roll including an assessment against Santa Fe personal property totaling $2,000 caused the roll to be returned for correction.

Dona Ana county's tax roll still has not put in an appearance.

GRIMSHAW CHOCOLATE SHOP OPENS TODAY

After a month's work in remodeling the store room at the corner of Second and Central, formerly occupied by the Hub, the Grimshaw Chocolate Shop opened for business this afternoon. As handsome fixtures as are to be found in the southwest have been installed and the new store is a model of beauty. In buying the fixtures special attention was given to sanitation and in this respect the shop could not be improved upon. In addition to serving all kinds of soft drinks and creams a daily luncheonette will be served. A. L. Grimshaw and A. C. Thomas are in personal charge of the store.
